Parents Protest Age Restriction

Newmarket—Immediate additions to two schools were advised by C. B. Routley, assistant to the deputy minister of education, at a public school board meeting in the council chambers on Friday night. He advised an immediate addition to the Stuart Scott building and to the Alexander Muir school if feasible. Mr. Routley had made an inspection of the schools at the request of the board.

He suggested two-room additions and thought the Alexander Muir school, good for many years yet, would take an addition on the north side. He advised starting a kindergarten, having a double kindergarten at the Stuart Scott school. Mr. Routley saw no reason for changing the three-school system but said more accommodation was definitely needed soon.

A central school for grades seven and eight, the senior grades, would be a good plan for the future, he said. From the figures supplied by the town clerk, he estimated that 1952 would be the peak year with an increase of approximately 200 students from now until that year. At present, each class averages 39, which is quite heavy, he said, and suggested doing away with the home economics room for temporary space.

"I see no reason for admitting five-year-old children to a grade one program," he said. "I do not like the idea of admitting them to kindergarten, but if a child can't meet the reading standards at the end of the first grade, he is not ready for grade two."

Parents Protest

A delegation of parents attended the meeting Friday with a petition signed by over 100 persons in protest to the age restriction on school beginners. A month ago the board introduced a ruling that a child entering school in September must be six years old by the following December 31.

Dr. G. E. Case said that there was going to be a problem in accommodation without five-year-olds and that there is no way of making room for a younger group. Several parents explained that their children had been going to a private kindergarten and could already read and print a little and were prepared to enter school. Fred Hall stated that the budget had already been drawn up and there was no provision for paying for another teacher or accommodation for September.

Spokesman for the delegation, Wyatt Moorby, said that the names on the petition spoke for over 20 children who had had private kindergarten training.

Inspector A. M. McKillop said that he would like to see accommodaton for these children and would like to see a kindergarten started in the fall.

DAYLIGHT SAVING

Potato Growers To Talk Disease Control

An important meeting of the potato growers of York county will be held in the agricultural board room in Newmarket on Wednesday evening, April 21, at 8.30. The long talked of research program to solve the problem of scab is being undertaken and the committee is anxious to have a large turn-out of the growers to discuss this problem.

Howard Harper, Goodwood, member of the provincial committee, will be present to outline plans for this campaign.

The 500 Bushel Club will hold its reorganization meeting at the same time. This project has done a great deal in stimulating interest in improved methods of potato growing and we expect that it will be a large competition in 1948.

To Use Memorial Site As Parking Space

Newmarket — Parking space may be opened up on the property recently expropriated by the town for a memorial hall when the weather makes it possible. Chairman of the property committee Tom Birrell moved a resolution to that effect at the last council meeting. He suggested that a parking limit of 12 or 24 hours be imposed so that cars would not be parked there permanently.

The land on the south side of Park Ave. behind the post office building was expropriated by the town last fall with a view of building a public auditorium as a memorial to war veterans. Mr. Birrell said that the property could serve as a parking lot until further suitable space can be found.

Alfred Willingham Active In Community

Aurora—Funeral services were held on Tuesday from P. M. Thompson's Funeral Home for Alfred Willingham, a native of England who had resided in the United States before retiring to Aurora around 12 years ago. In Aurora he had been active in Red Cross, Navy League, Board of Trade, and national clothing drives. He was active in sending comforts to the men overseas during the war. He was an official of Aurora United church, and was chaplain of Rising Sun Masonic Lodge, Aurora. He was a past master of Union Lodge, A.F. & A.M., Dearborn, Mich.

Mr. Willingham was generous of his time and ability in all worthwhile community endeavors and his jovial nature brought cheer to many in times of distress and illness. He had suffered from asthma for many years and had been in comparatively good health until a few weeks ago.

He is survived by his widow, the former Beatrice Giffen, and one daughter, Mrs. John Crabtree (Hilda) of Aurora. Mr. Crabtree is in England on a business trip and was unable to return in time for the funeral. The funeral was under Masonic auspices and Rev. Roy F. Hicks conducted the funeral service. Cremation was at Toronto.

Surviving are her husband, a daughter, Jean F. Hunter, and a son, Bruce F. Hunter. Two sons, J. Gordon and Dr. T. Kenneth, M.R.C.S., predeceased her. Also surviving are a sister, Mrs. Percy Withrow, three brothers, Dr. J. F. Taylor, C. Taylor and Perry Taylor, Winnipeg. Funeral services were held April 13 at Roadhouse and Rose chapel and conducted by Rev. H. Cotton, assisted by Rev. Fred Birner of Huntsville. Interment was in Newmarket cemetery. Pallbearers were C. McCauley, Wesley Brooks, Dr. W. O. Noble, Fred Chantler, W. McCaffrey and Stanley Janes.

Who Left What? Puzzle For Strand Manager

By J. E. STRUTHERS

People who go to the picture shows depart from the theatre and leave odd things behind them. One theatre manager found a complete change of men's clothes after the show but he didn't remember anyone who didn't leave fully dressed. Imagine the concern of an usher who found a length of garden hose in the loges, or the baffled manager who discovered a pair of false teeth clamped over the back of a seat. Was it an excited Betty Grable fan or just an absent minded customer?

Morley Gilkes, manager of the Strand in Newmarket, showed us a whole carton of duds and a drawer full of hardware that has been left there over a period of time.

People who come in from the country to see Roy Rogers on a Saturday night or from outside communities often bring their lunches, said Morley. When the theatre is cleaned up, lunch boxes are found among scattered crusts of bread. Once the Strand found a complete set of golf clubs and two cases of soft drinks. The owner came for the clubs and the employees drank the soft drinks.

There is always the usual litter of chocolate bar and ice cream cartons. Empty bottles are sometimes profuse. A few months ago a child's "bunny suit" was left in a seat and nobody claimed it so it was given away to a kid that made good use of it.

The show sleeper is quite common. The Strand averages one a month, according to Morley. Of course it's anyone's privilege to buy a ticket and go and have a snooze. He can be sure that Morley or an usher will wake him at the end of the performance.

Among the hardware items in the collection is a silver cigaret case with a faint "K. T." scratched on the initial plate, padlocks, several groups of keys, one with five on a ring carrying an amusement machine slug with them. Another case of four keys has one post office box key and another that looks like a car key.

The carton of duds has dozens of mitts, gloves, some odd, some in pairs, hats, scarves, ties. There are several wallets, some cheap ones. Of course there is always the type who comes to the box office and says he definitely lost his lighter there three nights ago, he's quite sure. (He was probably at ten different places that night, but he's quite sure it was in the theatre that he lost it). The ushers always hunt and don't find the lighter and the customer goes away mumbling that his lighter just must be in that theatre.

Morley doesn't complain at all but he wishes people would collect their lost items. He doesn't feel like returning a wallet worth two bits to someone away on the other side of town, especially when he gets dozens of them.

Safecrackers Failed An Attempt At Eves'

Newmarket—An attempt was made to crack the safe of the W. H. Eves Co. on Davis Drive late Friday night or Saturday morning. The brick siding around the safe was torn open but the steel walls resisted all efforts to break through them.

The would-be safecrackers entered the building through a window at the rear of the mill, and the signs of their visit were found by Earl Weddel, proprietor, when he entered the building Saturday morning. Chief Constable Byron Burbidge is investigating.

VISITS CAMP BORDEN

Aurora — "C" Squadron, 25th Armored Regiment, Q.Y.R., attended the Royal Canadian Armored Corps school at Camp Borden on Sunday for a tour of inspection and a look-see at the latest in armored fighting vehicles. The squadron was entertained at dinner by the R.C.A.C.

Red Cross Campaign Tops Objective

Newmarket—Slightly over the objective of $4,000 for Newmarket and district, the Red Cross Society's campaign for funds took in $4,014 in the local drive that closed recently. Campaign chairman M. A. Patterson said that there are probably some returns to come in yet.

Mr. Patterson said that canvassers and captains deserve praise for their hard work and that he wished to thank them for making the campaign a success.

"I would like to thank all workers for their efforts in this campaign and the public for its support of the Red Cross," said Mrs. W. R. Stephens, chairman of the Newmarket Red Cross Society. "We are very pleased with the response," she said. Mrs. Stephens added that a large shipment of refugee clothing and work done by the sewing and knitting groups was forwarded yesterday. She expressed appreciation toward the workers who are responsible for the shipment.

Municipal Officials Guests Of Lions

Newmarket — The Lions club held its annual "municipal night" Monday when officials of adjoining municipalities were guests at the dinner meeting in St. Paul's church.

The work of the department of municipal affairs was described by Mr. Carter, supervisor of the municipal supervision department, who stressed that the function of the department was to advise and assist provincial municipal officials in the problems of local government.

Mr. Carter said that the municipal department was preparing a provincial-wide review of assessments, and it was hoped to provide a code of building values as a guide. The speaker was introduced by Wesley Brooks and thanked by Dr. S. J. Boyd and Mayor Jos. Vale.

Stay On Standard Time, Scott Twp. Council Asks

Disapproval of daylight saving time from the rural people was expressed at the last meeting of the Scott township council. A resolution was passed to request councils of towns and villages to remain on standard time as farmers find it inconvenient to have daylight saving time forced on them by the towns.

The farmer feels that he is inconvenienced because he can't get in to town at the right hours to do business. At the most important time of the year he might find it difficult to get emergency repairs or machinery parts. He can't start an hour earlier each day to draw hay or grain because of natural conditions and the farm workman wants to quit the same time as urban workers so he can have long evenings too.

CLOSING DATE APRIL 28

Newmarket — April 28 is the closing date for suggestions for the inscription for the memorial to be erected on the Veterans' plot at Newmarket cemetery by the Newmarket Veterans' Association. The inscription should be 200 letters or less. The association asks that suggestions be sent to Fred. Cass, 55 Prospect Ave., or mailed to post office box 355.

TO COLLECT SALVAGE

Newmarket—The Boy Scouts will collect paper salvage on the west side of Newmarket on Saturday. An advance party of Scouts will bundle the salvage and place it at the curbside for collection in the afternoon. The Scouts use the proceeds for financing their camp activities.

More School Space Said Urgent Need

Newmarket — The public school board has sent a letter to town council requesting a meeting in the coming week to discuss the board's proposition to build either four additional school rooms or erect another building.

Mrs. N. L. Mathews, chairman, said that the board decided at a special meeting on Sunday to discuss provision of additional school accommodation with the council because of the acute shortage of space at the present time, and because of the imminent increases in enrolment, as predicted by C. B. Routley of the department of education, who recently inspected Newmarket school buildings and checked on the birth rate in the town.

She said that the board had also considered the request of the parents' delegation at last Friday's meeting for schooling for five-year-olds as a factor in the need for more space.

There are several reasons why an additional two rooms on the Alexander Muir school as suggested by Mr. Routley would not be feasible, said Mrs. Mathews. The condition of the building does not lend itself to a new addition and there is danger from snow and ice falling off the main roof in winter, she said. All four rooms added to the Stuart Scott building would not be advisable as the population is spread too far away; there should be something done for the north and east sides of town, she said.

Four additional rooms would not be adequate in five years time in relation to the recent rise in the birth rate.

High School Estimates Over $10,000

Newmarket—An estimated increase of $10,312.84 for the expenditures on Newmarket High School for 1948 is expected because of the rise in high school costs. Increased teachers' salaries, a superannuation deduction from the provincial grant and a 1947 deficit of around $5,000 are seen as causes.

The public school board's estimates increased around $4,000. Ten thousand dollars in taxation revenue over the regular income has been obtained from the industries for application against the total school estimates of $14,000.

'Fishing' Talks To Be Held In Arena

Newmarket — The location of the "fishing" talks, sponsored by the Newmarket branch of the Canadian Legion and beginning tomorrow night, has been changed from the Legion Hall to the Newmarket Arena. There will be four Friday night lectures and demonstrations on fly and bait casting, rod making, and fly tying. There will be moving pictures throughout the series.

The Toronto Anglers and Hunters' Association is providing the instructors for the meetings which are open to all enthusiasts, regardless of age or sex. There is no charge.

Legion Members Give Blood Service

Newmarket — Members of the Newmarket Branch of the Canadian Legion are being asked to sign up for blood grouping tests in order to have a greater number of volunteers on hand for blood transfusions at York County hospital. The list at the hospital has had about 38 names for possible transfusions and Dr. J. G. Cock, representing the Legion, said that 50 or 60 more names would be desirable.

Last year, 23 transfusions were given at York County hospital. Doctors can look up the list for the blood type needed in an emergency and anyone on the list can be called at any time. The list has run low, said Dr. Cock, and as some of the donors work out of town, it might be difficult to get the right type in an emergency. There should be a larger number to cover the range of blood groups, he stated.

The Red Cross has planned to start blood banks, but a little over a year ago it was suggested that the Legion supply donors and a number were tested and grouped then. Since the Red Cross has not organized for blood donations in town yet, the Legion is going to carry on.

Miss Melrose, at York County hospital, takes the grouping tests and is in charge of the list of volunteers.

Tired Of Inaction Go To Department

Newmarket — A committee from the high school board was appointed to go to the deputy minister of education and get information about the formation of a high school area and how to go about getting more space, at a meeting in the council chambers on Monday night.

Mrs. J. C. R. Edwards who made the resolution, suggested that the same committee go to the town council after the information has been obtained, in hopes of getting a definite answer, one way or another, about the school area plan.

On October 16, 1947, a letter was sent to the council stating that the board was unanimously in favor of the high school area plan and that Newmarket high school was no longer large enough to give adequate secondary school education. The board now feels that the council has ignored the board and has avoided action, as letters and presentations to council have been unanswered.

Meanwhile, the council had decided to do nothing about the situation until a report had been heard on the Hope Commission on education.

One member of the board said that if the council does not give a proper answer of some kind, each member of the board ought to resign and state his reasons, then maybe some kind of action would be stirred up. The whole thing is being sabotaged by the council, he said.

Mrs. Edwards questioned the present courses in the high school curriculum as to what there was for a student who does not aim at a university entrance. "We can cater only to a few," said Principal J. W. Lockhart. "We have nothing to offer non-matriculation students except the commercial option course. Fifteen percent of high school students is the greatest average that goes to university," he said. "There should be more agricultural courses, for one thing," said Mr. Lockhart.

Mr. Lockhart said that the department seemed undecided about one aspect of the school area plan, having heard from one department man that an area could not be formed without including Sutton. Another department man said that Newmarket could go ahead without Sutton, he said.

The committee from the board which is going to discuss the area plan with the deputy minister is A. N. Belugin, J. W. Lockhart and A. M. Mills.

Whoosh And A Scream Jet Plane Has Passed

Newmarket — Jet propulsion made itself heard in Newmarket on Monday afternoon about 4.30. If anyone heard an indescribable roar or whine about that time, it was a new de Havilland Vampire jet fighter pulling out of a dive.

The Era and Express obtained confirmation on Tuesday from the deHavilland company that the aircraft, which was over Newmarket, was a Vampire, Mark III with a de Havilland Mark II Goblin jet engine. One has to look ahead of the position where the sound seems to be coming from to locate this fast aircraft.

Last week two de Havilland jets of a Montreal squadron flew from Toronto to Montreal in 33 minutes from wheels off to wheels down, a distance of 324 miles at an average speed of 582 m.p.h. A tail wind of approximately 50 m.p.h. made the average greater than the maximum speed of 531 m.p.h. for that type of aircraft.

Not Canvassers For Blind Institute

The annual campaign for the blind in Newmarket district will be held as usual, so stated H. W. Henry, field secretary of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, in an interview with The Newmarket Era and Express yesterday.

Mr. Henry, who is himself blind, was commenting on the rumor to the effect that there would be no campaign this year. Mr. Henry said that the headquarters of the Institute had received a large number of inquiries and complaints concerning the activities of certain agents who are operating in Newmarket and canvassing by telephone, for the sale of goods allegedly made by the blind. "On the basis of these inquiries and complaints," declared Mr. Henry. "it would appear that quite a number of citizens were sold goods under this erroneous impression that they were patronizing the Canadian National Institute for the Blind." According to Mr. Henry the Canadian National Institute for the Blind does not canvass from door to door or by the telephone for the sale of "Blindcraft Products." Many blind workers are employed by the Canadian National Institute for the Blind in the manufacturing of brooms, mops, brushes, aprons and dresses and many other blindcraft articles, but these are sold through the channels of trade.

"There are 210 blind persons in York county registered as blind with the Canadian National Institute for the Blind," stated Mr. Henry, "and services provided by the Institute for this group call for the budget of $1,200—all of which must be raised in the form of tag days and special contributions. So far as I know no society for the blind, other than the Canadian National Institute for the Blind, assists our blind folk in this area."

"According to Mr. Henry the annual campaign for the blind will be on or about April 19 and a county wide tag day for the blind will be held on Saturday, May 1.

In Newmarket this tag day will be sponsored as usual by the local committee of which Mrs. J. E. Morris is convenor.

PLEASANTVILLE

Miss Joyce VanLuvan spent the weekend with Misses June and Betty Haines.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Jewitt of Kettleby spent part of Sunday at Mrs. G. McClure's home, Mrs. Jewitt remaining for a few days to help her mother to prepare to move.

Guests for Sunday tea at the home of Mr. George Hunt included Mr. and Mrs. R. Jewitt, Kettleby, Mrs. G. McClure and Murray, and Mr. E. Madill.

The Bogarttown Institute will meet on Tuesday, April 20, at the home of Mrs. Sidney Legge. All convenors are asked to have reports ready and to be prepared to vote for new officers. Also come prepared to give a donation of money to help erect a sign at Bogarttown to help keep it on the map.

Mrs. McNicol, Bogarttown, had a quilting on Thursday afternoon. Those present were Mrs. Flintoff, Mrs. Penrose, Mrs. Huyck, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Colville, Mrs. G. McClure, Mrs. G. Hunt and Mrs. E. Hawtin. Mrs. McNicol served lovely refreshments.

On Friday evening of last week Mr. and Mrs. M. Price entertained Mr. and Mrs. David Evans for tea, the occasion being their 45th wedding anniversary, after which they were taken for a joy ride in a car, decked up with streamers and tin cans, around Newmarket and on their return home, were surprised to find 55 neighbors, relatives and friends waiting to welcome them. Mr. Earl Toole acted as chairman and called on several for speeches. Master H. Price presented them, on behalf of those present, with a lovely plant and a handsome sum of money. Mr. Evans, on behalf of himself and his wife, replied fittingly, after which all joined in a lovely lunch.

FATHER BUILT FIRST ST. PAUL'S ORGAN

Walter Lye, 74, Scarboro, is the son of Edward Lye who came out from England near the middle of the last century and started a business of constructing pipe organs. Above, Walter Lye holds a pipe which was imported more than 80 years ago by his father. Mr. Lye, Sr., built the first St. Paul's church organ in Newmarket, recently replaced by a new Hammond organ. It is believed that the original St. Paul's organ was the first he built in Canada.

Son of Walter and grandson of Edward is William Lye shown above at the console of one of their organs. He and his father and brother, Norman, carry on the long established pipe organ business at Scarboro but there are no more children to continue the trade in the family. Two apprentices, Freddie Chester and Kenneth Brownscombe, work with them.

Built St. Paul's Organ Firm Still Active

Newmarket—The new Hammond organ in St. Paul's church of England is the second instrument in the history of the church. The first organ was installed in the former church building around 70 years ago or more and was built by Edward Lye, the first of three generations of Scarboro organ builders.

The Hammond organ, built by the Hammond Organ Electric Co., Montreal, and installed by Heintzman's, is operated entirely by electricity. There are no pipes or wind to supply the tones; the notes are produced by electrical contacts and the quality can be changed, the same as a pipe organ, to produce an effect similar to reed, string or brass instruments in a symphony orchestra.

Rev. J. T. Rhodes of St. Paul's said the first organ was tuned in 1861 and believes that it was built some time between 1850 and 1854. The organ is believed to be the first built by Edward Lye who came out from England and started the trade. His son, Walter, 74, and two grandsons, William and Norman, carry on the trade at Scarboro.

The original St. Paul's organ did not come directly to Newmarket; the Toronto Conservatory is believed to have used it for a number of years first.

The ornamental pipes remain in the church as before. They had no part in the functioning of the pipe organ, the actual pipes that produced the sound being behind the ornamental pipes. The Hammond is a two manual organ and has two main parts, the console and the amplification and tone cabinet. Mr. Rhodes said that anyone skilled in playing piano could easily learn to play this kind of an organ.

One of the organists in the early history of St. Paul's church was Charles Hargreave Simpson, father of Mrs. A. D. Evans.

MOUNT ALBERT

Mrs. D. B. Pegg had a very successful sale of household goods on Thursday of last week and left on Saturday for her new home at Rodney where she will live with her brother, Mr. Alfred Green.

Mrs. Evelyn Pegg has come to live in her new home on Alice St.

What might have been a catastrophe for the whole town happened last week when Mr. Kurty's grain house caught fire from a fire started early in the day by the railroad men burning rubbish, and which spread to the village dumping ground. The high wind which arose in the afternoon fanned it and a spark caught the roof of the building. The chemical engines were working well, however, and they were able to get it out. Otherwise the wind would have taken the fire right through the village.

Mr. and Mrs. John Arnold have returned from a visit with relatives at Galt and Hanover.

Mrs. Don Degeer, Toronto, spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Stokes, Sr.

Have Preview

A Mount Albert audience had the pleasure of a preview of the comedy, "Don't Darken My Door," by the Newmarket Dramatic Club, and would like to say it was exceedingly well done. Each actor took his part very well. It was certainly funny and kept one guessing to the end. Do not miss seeing it if you get a chance. The presentation was sponsored by the Women's Institute and the net proceeds were $30, which more than exceeds its hospital fund.

On Saturday, May 1, there will be a tag day for the Canadian Institute of the Blind. This will be in charge of the Women's Institute.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Davis, Diane and Sandra, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Don Loach in Toronto.

Exchange Ministers

Rev. W. H. Burgess, who has been the United church minister here for the last six years, has received a unanimous call to Bracebridge United church and Mount Albert congregation have also sent a unanimous call to Rev. C. P. Shapter of Bracebridge, thus making an agreeable exchange of ministers which will take place July 1.

Sports Day

Saturday night at 8 o'clock, the committees will meet in the town hall to complete plans for Sports Day to be held Saturday, June 5. All interested please attend.

Continuity In Development

The letter published on the front page of last week's Era and Express is a good summary of the "beefs" that are most often registered against the town council. It was printed, not to embarass the town council, which is the most vulnerable group in Newmarket, but to jar those citizens who are inclined to blind themselves to the faults of their community. Newmarket is not the best of all possible communities nor will it be until the citizens share with the council some understanding of the difficulties involved in correcting the faults.

When the letter was read at the council meeting, there was general agreement from the councillors. The gist of their remarks was: "We know these faults exist. We are trying to correct them. But our resources are limited. We are doing what we can with what we have." It was estimated that a mill rate of 60 would be necessary to make a sizeable start at erasing some of the faults. But this would be impractical. A municipal mill rate can rise only as high as the majority of citizens can afford to pay, and in Newmarket, that maximum has just about been reached. To raise the rate to 60 mills would work a hardship out of proportion to the advantages received.

In the meantime, there has been much the council is doing but progress is necessarily slow. High maintenance costs, like those of snow removal and street repair, cut deeply into the yearly budget. Operating expenses, such as salaries and supplies, have soared along with the general rise in prices. Although the debenture debt has been lowered, there is still a large fixed charge the town must pay each year. The money that is left doesn't go very far in such projects as the overnight provision of a new town hall.

Newmarket would be blinding itself to common sense, however, if these facts were taken as an excuse to do nothing or to do as little as possible in making the community a better place in which to live. For one thing, the town council lacks a continuity in long range projects that inevitably results in their postponement. A new fire hall has been postponed for the last 20 years. An auxiliary body in the form of a planning committee, such as Aurora has and which is valued sufficiently high to be granted a mill on the tax rate for expenses, with members serving staggered terms would give continuity in planning and development of physical features of the town. Other municipalities have found the planning committee essential. It is at least worth a try in Newmarket.

Industries Assume Higher Tax

The acceptance by the Newmarket industries of a tax bill increased by $10,000 over the regular charge indicates the measure of the co-operation and goodwill towards the town that exists among the contributing managements. This willingness to assist is further evident in the acceptance of the added taxes this year. In the ordinary course of events, had the industrial assessments been raised this year the $225,000 necessary to produce the $10,000 in taxes, the town would have had to wait until next year for the benefit of the increase.

The industries accepted the extra charge this year to help the town assume the anticipated increase of $14,000 in the school estimates. Announcing the increase, Deputy-Reeve J. L. Spillette noted also that increases in two years in the school estimates totalled $32,000, and that Newmarket had, during that period, lost considerable revenue from the sale of electric power within the town since the hydro commission has taken over. Some idea of what the loss of revenue meant to the town is seen in the surplus of $29,000 in two years' operations.

Deputy-Reeve Spillette also gave promise in his announcement that the long discussed equalization of assessments throughout Newmarket had not been forgotten. A perennial topic of nomination night, equalization of assessments—the setting of assessments in town at a consistent proportion of the value of the assessed property—has been a long awaited reform. It is to be hoped that it will not be delayed much longer.

Answering The Charge Of Indifference

The Collis Leather Co., through its managing director, Dr. Paul Beer, presented a brief to the Aurora town council last week, the gist of which was that the company had about reached the end of its tether in finding a satisfactory way of disposing of the tannery effluent. The company asked that disposal of effluent through the municipal sewer system be given a trial.

Regardless of the decision by the council, the Collis Leather brief did present the public with the history of the company's efforts to find a more attractive method of dealing with tannery waste. It should dispel any impression that the company has been indifferent to the nuisance it has created.

The odor arising from the tannery creek on a hot night is unforgetable. It is the sort of experience that prompts blistering condemnation and reflects on those responsible. Yet it is quite obvious, from the evidence contained in the brief, that the Collis Leather Company has gone to extraordinary lengths to end the situation. An expenditure of $80,000 since 1939 is a sure indication of the company's efforts.

Legion Blood Donor Service

The Newmarket branch of the Canadian Legion, in common with the Newmarket Veterans' Association, devotes a substantial amount of its resources to the assistance of veterans in distress. It is unfortunate that this aspect of the Legion activities has not received the publicity that it deserves. For example, during 1947, the Legion dispersed in the neighborhood of $600 in direct aid to veterans. Other service activities have included donations of assistance to various causes, the campaign to aid children in Europe which was conducted by the Legion Auxilary and showed a total of $744.

A break-down of Legion expenditures shows the following: Aid to Britain, $202; assistance to veterans, $653.50; Christmas parties for children of veterans, $255.60; grant to camp for underprivileged children, $25; Christmas gifts for orphans of veterans, $55.25; sponsoring midget hockey team, $175; total, $1,365.35.

To these and other activities has been added a blood donor service with Legion members volunteering their blood for transfusions at York County hospital. The Red Cross has the establishment of a blood bank service as part of its plans for the future. In the meantime the Legion has assumed this activity. Last year, approximately 80 percent of the transfusions at York County hospital were given by Legion members. It is a worthy service and the Legion is to be congratulated.

Cancer is the universal foe of man. Thirty-nine Canadians die each day of this dread disease. They are lives which are often lost needlessly through ignorance and fear. The Ontario Cancer Society is conducting a membership drive through April with an objective of 150,000 members. The $1 membership fee brings members up-to-date information about cancer treatment and research.

Horse sense and luck. That's what Henrietta has nothing but.

The probe into her activities with that young gay dog of Russian lineage could pin down no evidence of un-Canadianism. She has left her underground quarters and returned to the house of Chazz, prepared to face life with renewed vigor.

Tinker Chenko, the Siberian in question, has left Ottawa and joined the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo as stage hand rat router. He turned out to be quite a decent and cultured chap.

Good old Henrietta. She pulled through a difficult phase of her life when all the world was against her. Fate could have dealt her a mean blow, however the tides turned in time and she is once again a normal citizen.

So go the loves of Henrietta Delrimple de Cadiz.

Hey boss!

Maybe you think you have your finger on the pulse of things around this building. Not like I have though. There are undercurrents and ebbs and flows in human affairs that you don't always see but which I do.

In my observations, I have taken note of interesting personality colors in our business and while doing this have seen some absolutely brilliant human actions.

Talent, for one, is rampant in our shop. Our printers and lino girls, for instance, have turned all their everyday conversation into operatic form. Music is in every corner of our composing room and even Bill soothes the Chandler and Price press with a lullabye at five every night. The other day Bill was doing a job on the C. and P. singing Mannana. Larry told me that he and the Chandler and Price were trying to outdo each other in tonal variations.

Joe and Kes have not escaped the charm of music and its effect. I have often heard them present a request to Marj for an 18-point slug in Wagnerian strains.

Oh, we have a lusty bunch around here, boss.

This office is nothing less than a seat of culture and refinement too, boss. Junior has been giving demonstrations in the technique of yo-yo-ing in his spare time and Bernice gave a lecture two days ago on the Ancient Practice of Voodoo and its Implications in Modern Society.

I don't suppose you ever did know that there was a formal discussion group that holds regular meetings. I walked into the press room one lunch hour and the New Lush Look, as chairman, was conducting a discussion, in parliamentry style, on the opinion that the "House Felt that Cheesecake is Unnecessary in Advertising." Naturally Del had the floor most of the time and won the discussion for the negative, hands down.

I just wanted you to know, boss, that there are lots of people around here who do more things than just their day-to-day tasks. Life, at The Era and Express, boss, is fraught with interest.

One can make life interesting under any circumstances I guess. My cousin Jupiter always said that. He was a poet who spent a lot of time in New York with the arty types. Jupiter said you could make yourself feel like anything you want if you just put your mind to it.

I remember once, Jupiter believed he was a poetic heron bird. He danced all around a field, clenching a rose in his teeth and throwing snapdragons in the air. He also took his friends on nature walks in the country. Once, he found an old dried-up well, composed some verse on the spot, shouted it down the well and then filled in the well with rocks and dirt. He was preserving it for posterity, he said.

Yep. Jupiter got a lot out life. He finally died at a bridge party. The party was on the top floor of a tall building. Jupiter, in an inspired fit, thought he was a sea gull and took off from a window sill. His arms flailed the air for a second and then he plumeted 17 stories to the street. They buried him in an old dried-up well with a pencil and four sheets of copy paper — for posterity.

The story is told of a man who stood on a busy street corner in a large city offering perfectly good $10 bills for sale at one dollar. He got few takers. The others were just naturally suspicious of getting something for nothing.

The moral is applicable to the reception being given the farmer's account book and income tax guide that has been prepared by the department of national revenue. The account books are set up to enable the farmer to keep accurate records of his business. The book is prepared in such a way that the farmer can take off his balances for income tax with the minimum of trouble.

It seems to us that anything which will simplify the preparation of income tax returns should be greeted by loud hosannas. You have to make the darn things out anyway.

Gleanings From Weekly Press

Tragedy: On a mournful note, the Hanover, Ont., Post, regrets the gradual passing of the old fashioned rocking chairs from kitchens, believing it to be an even more serious blight on the joys of rural living than was marked by the coming of chiffon pies or the making of buckwheat cakes without buttermilk. Here's an excerpt and isn't this country journalism at its best: "For the rocking chair, that nurse of contemplation and slow motion, that resilient yielder to man's resting or restless body cannot, of course, be thought of as having had Puritan birth or breeding, etc., etc."

The proposal to ban communists from entering Canada has the support of the Hanna, Alta., Herald, which calls it welcome news. "The tactics of the Communists are well known and from what has happened in Europe, Canadians must be on the alert more than ever before."

Any increase in unemployment benefits will bring an increased number asking for them deplores the Estevan, Sask., Mercury, adding that "all the pioneers of this country who are dead and gone must be turning over in their graves when they see what is going on . . . through their toil, thrift and honesty of purpose they began the making of a great country and a great people . . . if our civilization is to last it can only do so by practicing the fundamental principles of right living which are individual responsibilites.

Ottawa Letter

By J. E. SMITH, M.P.
North York

Members returned April 5 after a visit to their constituencies and now face a heavy schedule of business between now and July 1. I met many people of the riding during the recess and now I take this opportunity to thank those who took the trouble to bring many matters to my attention and give me the benefit of their views on some of the important problems facing us at the present time. I repeat what I have said on many occasions, that as your member I do most sincerely appreciate hearing from electors of the constituency on any matter of local or national interest.

Important items on the house agenda include ratification of the Geneva trade agreements, the adoption of a national labor code and, of course, the all-important budget.

The freight rates increase stole the limelight the opening day. The board of transport commissioners' finding, which grants all railways in Canada the right to increase rates by 21 percent, was tabled in the house and immediately set off an interesting and lively debate. Freight rates in Canada have not been increased since 1922, so it was not surprising that in view of increased wages, and increases in cost of operation and maintenance, an increase was granted. However, members from the extreme east and western sections of Canada protested, claiming that Ontario and Quebec are favored provinces in the freight rate structure, that people in the Maritimes and the west, particularly British Columbia, are bearing an unjust share of the freight costs. There was a demand for an equalization of rates and there were threats of secession by this or that part of Canada.

Probe Rate Structure

The government, while accepting the recommendation of an increase, asked the board of transport commissioners to make a thorough investigation of the rate structure of railways and railway companies which are under the jurisdiction of parliament, with a view to the establishment of a rate structure which will be equal for all persons and localities. Railways play an important role in our national economy and transportation, which was a contentious factor at the time of confederation, promises to be a lively topic of political discussion for some time. We hope that the government action in asking the transport commission to study the matter of equalization, may remove some of the grievances of people in certain sections of Canada and make a real contribution to national unity.

In response to many inquiries from farmers regarding income tax I would like to point out that Hon. J. J. McCann, M.D., minister of national revenue, announced in the house of commons that those farmers who report taxable income based on cash actually received and cash expenses actually paid out during the calendar year, will not be required to fill out the net worth statement on the new 1947 farmers' income tax return forms.

The new minister for veterans' affairs, the Hon. Milton Gregg, V.C., stated in the house recently that over 19,000 veterans of the recent war have taken advantage of the Veterans' Land Act and have gone farming on a full-time basis.

Want To Buy A Body?

(From Napier Moore's Scratchpad in the Financial Post)

At breakfast, the daughter of a friend of ours casually informed the family that a fellow student had "sold his body to the university for $50." She had been told that anyone can get $50 for signing a paper which makes one's body available, after death, to the medical school for dissection; that if at any time the signer decides it would be nicer to be turfed intact, the whole thing can be called off by repayment of the money.

Of course there isn't the slightest truth in the story. It seems to pop up about once a decade. It makes professors tear out their hair.

Dr. Watt of U. of T.'s Anatomy Department, tells us that people continue to appear, offering their bodies for sale. They are informed that they have no legal right to sell their bodies; nor has the university a legal right to buy them. Such traffic is expressly forbidden by the Provincial Anatomy Act. Virtually all provinces, and all countries, have similar acts.

A person can, in his will, donate his body for anatomical purposes. But the main source of supply is unclaimed bodies. All unclaimed bodies are reported to the chief inspector under the Act, an undertaker. He allocates them to various medical schools. When a cadaver leaves the school it goes direct to a special cemetery plot where it is decently buried with religious rites. The various undertaking services are paid for by the provincial government through funds contributed to the universities and earmarked for that purpose.

Opinions Of Other Editors

(Orillia Packet and Times)

The feud between the dominion and the provincial governments is developing into a scandal. The general public has watched its progress with growing disgust, some people taking one side and some the other, but all agreeing that the spectacle was far from edifying. Generally speaking, we ourselves have felt that the provincial government's case has been fundamentally strong. The efforts of the dominion government to reduce the provinces to economic subsidiaries, dependent on doles from the federal exchequer, was a threat to provincial autonamy. The weaker provinces were bullied into reluctant acquiescence. But Ontario happened to be strong enough financially to resist effectively, and the government appeared to us to be justified in doing so.

The Ontario government's scheme for bringing British settlers into Ontario was a refreshing piece of well thought out and well administered immigration, in default of a national policy. We shall we sorry to see the plan dropped because of differences over the planes to be used.

The province also appears to be justified in trying to get a fair deal for the municipalities where wartime houses have been built on Crown lands. The situation at Ajax, in the neighboring county of Ontario, is a glaring instance of the injustice that can be imposed by the federal right to tax exemption. The twp. of Pickering has been saddled with the cost of servicing Ajax, in itself a small city. Repeated protests from the twp. council and from the county council have brought no redress; whereupon an appeal was made to the provincial government to intervene.

The bill introduced by the government and passed by the legislature was intended to give the municipalities concerned relief from this unfair condition. But since the Hon. C. D. Howe made the act the excuse for cancelling all the dominion government's housing plans in Ontario Premier Drew has promised that the act will remain inoperative. Nevertheless some remedy should be found by negotiations for the condition with which it was designed to deal. If the dominion government declines to remove what is manifestly an anomalous injustice there will be general disapproval, now that the quarrel has brought the facts to the attention of the public.

While approving of the general lines of his policy in these respects, we would suggest to Premier Drew that he would strengthen his position if he used less belligerent and provocative speech. He can be assured that the public does not approve of the quarrel between the governments, and will not be sympathetic to any appearance of provoking or continuing hostilities. The general opinion is that the governments should come together and settle their differences. This will not be easy to accomplish if there are personal antagonisms. The provincial premier might note that when he charged Mr. Mackenzie King with "piling falsehood on falsehood" that astute politician maintained a dignified silence—and thereby got much the best of the argument.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Evans, Bogarttown, wish to convey their most sincere thanks to their many friends who joined in expressions of congratulations on the occasion of their 45th wedding anniversary. Alike to those who graced the occasion with their presence, as well as to those who otherwise gave expression to their kindly regards, we once more say, Thank you. In the face of a surprise so stunning we were just "not at home" and even yet words fail to express our feelings. Turning to the lighter side of the incident, may we thus conclude:

With streamers floating in the breeze,
And old tin cans for melodies,
With chauffeur laughing up his sleeve
Playing the game of make-believe,
Who would not be a bride again?
(Male solo:)
And who the luckiest of men?

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. Wm. Horner and family of Virginia wish to express to their friends, relatives and neighbors their thanks for acts of kindness, messages of sympathy and beautiful floral tributes extended to them in their sad bereavement in the loss of a dear wife and mother. Husband and family.

ANNIVERSARIES

Anniversaries can be mad, glad, sad, gay, solemn or sorrowful, but they all hold some remembrance of significance in personal, family, community, national or international life. I have been at two recently, both gay and glad, and I shall write first of the most recent, a 45th wedding anniversary.

All wedding anniversaries are milestones on a path two people have elected to follow together and at each one, they can pause to look back over the straight road, and hills of difficulty, and brooks of sorrow, where the stepping stones were few, but made strong by a mutual faith and love which had grown with the years. The one I have reference to was made memorable to Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Evans of Bogarttown because their friendly relatives and fellow members of the Gospel Tabernacle managed the celebration without their knowledge. The unsuspecting ones to be honored were entertained at supper by Mr. and Mrs. M. Price and taken for a bridal drive by their entertainers in a gaily be-decked car, complete to the "Just married" sign in the rear.

Returning, they found their house taken possession of by loving hands and a real surprise party underway. The other half of the family and I were somewhat late arriving as we had attended the high school entertainment — of which, by the way, more next week—and we arrived just as Mr. Leslie Harper was saying a few words regarding the good neighborliness and worth of Mr. and Mrs. Evans in the community. Previously, we learned, Mr. Earl Toole had spoken eloquently on the same subject and also recalled episodes in his and other's careers as pupils of Mr. Evans. He called on the other pupils present for some remarks and Douglas McClure, Mrs. Marsh and Evelyn Evans responded. Mr. Toole spoke with regret of another pupil, Frank Williams, whose very painful accident prevented his attendance.

Community singing and a solo by Mr. Richardson of Newmarket contributed to the evening's pleasure and Miss Richardson of Newmarket played the wedding march after which two very charming events took place — presentations: one a magnificent flower whose natural foliage was augmented by currency, presented by little Heather Price; and a roll of bills by Mr. Earl Toole. These gifts, the visible tokens of the real friendship and regard in which Mr. and Mrs. Evans are held, were suitably acknowledged by their recipients.

Mrs. Evans looked charming in a gown of American Beauty crepe, with a corsage of sweet peas, the gift of Mrs. N. Rogers, Armitage. The living-room was centred by a beautiful bouquet of spring flowers, presented by Mr. and Mrs. Perrin, Newmarket. There were 55 guests present. Among them, Miss Evelyn Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Evan's sister, Mrs. Fletcher, with Mr. Fletcher, all of Toronto. Also Mr. Tom Pritchard and Mr. Robert Pritchard and Mrs. Pritchard of Newmarket. All the guests were in holiday mood and enjoyed every moment of the evening with its gaiety, friendliness, and the pleasant feeling of solidity a marriage of 45 years gives a world of chaos. Everyone too, enjoyed the cup of tea and dainty refreshments which were served before the break-up of a party which will go down in community annals as a particularly happy event.

40th Anniversary

This celebration took place on St. Patrick's Day at the Vandorf Hall and was a milestone in the work of the Women's Institute of that place. The hall had a gala appearance, the long tables gay with daffodils and shamrocks, and the transparent beauty of red and green jellies, while the head table boasted a birthday cake, beautifully iced and adorned with blue and gold candles. The place-cards flew gaily like small banners from tiny candlesticks made of gumdrops and "life-savers," and holding a tiny candle, while the rolls reposed in serviettes.

From the moment we were greeted at the door by Mrs. Switzer till we said our adieus, everything moved like clockwork and spoke tellingly of the work of preparation accomplished by Mrs. White, president, and her members. At the head table were Mrs. Ralph Willis, now of Toronto, who gave a splendid resume of the work of Vandorf Institute from its inception in 1908. Mrs. Willis told of the difference of the work in those days and the difficulty in attending compared with now, where cars have superceded horse and buggy transportation. But the excellency of the work was the same then as now. Mrs. Hawtin and Miss Carroll, charter members, were asked to stand and receive an ovation. Mrs. White spoke of her pleasure in welcoming all present on that most happy occasion. Mrs. Corner, Aurora, acting for Mrs. Baynes, our District President, brought greetings from Mrs. Baynes and regrets for her absence. Mrs. B. Sinclair, district secretary, spoke eloquently of her pleasure on being present and also of her delight in Institute work and in no branch more than Vandorf. Mrs. Adams and Miss McDowell of Aurora were responsible for a very delightful interlude in the program. Miss McDowell played several numbers very beautifully and like Mrs. Adams, who sang two groups of songs most delightfully, was enthusiastically received. Mrs. Baycroft of Gormley brought greetings of that branch, as did Mrs. Colville for Bogarttown. Mrs. Fred Van Nostrand had a pleasant duty to perform in the way of the presentation of a beautiful lamp to a departing member, Mrs. Stephens, who replied pleasantly. Her daughter was also presented by the young people with a lovely cup and saucer. Miss Carroll cut the birthday cake. Your scribe gave a talk on St. Patrick and then Mrs. Art. Van Nostrand presented Mrs. R. Willis with a life membership pin and certificate, speaking in glowing terms of the work done by Mrs. Willis while in the community. Mrs. Willis replied with thanks and spoke of the pleasure she had had in that work. Amongst all this, you must remember we had been satisfying the inner man or woman in a perfectly satisfactory way, cold meat, scalloped potatoes, salad, pickles, jellies and pie and cake were enjoyed to the full and spoke highly of the excellent cooks who provided for this affair.

In closing Mrs. White and Mrs. Wright thanked all those who took part and the anniversary luncheon is now a part of Vandorf history.

Gardens And Gulls Inspire Golden Glow

By GOLDEN GLOW

I told Mr. Editor last week that I thought I'd write about "Our Feathered Friends and Gardens," for even if it remains quite cool, and chilly winds keep us in our red flannels, still we know the birds have returned and we know, too, that the spring flowers are growing apace in our flower borders in spite of adverse conditions. The dainty snowdrops, the "Bonnie bluebells" and the many colored croci, so jaunty and gay! Why I saw some lovely croci all in flower standing in a row in front of a home on Timothy St. West. They, and many other flowers, are grown by a veteran of the first World War. He has blossoms early and late, and all the season in between. He and his pet dog, a cute little Boston Bull.

My idea to write about gardens was after attending a meeting of the Horticultural Society April 9, when Mr. L. W. Butt, gladioli grower, gave a talk, accompanied by technicolor films, taken by himself, of his and other's famous gardens of glads; and then, as an extra treat, took us for a technicolor trip out west and back. You may be sure he took us to many famous, and many not so famous but equally delightful gardents. Many of them I have visited and written about before.

He started off with San Francisco and showed us beautiful gardens there. Of course out on the west coast they do not have to contend with an icy climate. Jack Frost seldom bothers them. I have picked roses in New Westminster at Christmas, holly too, and chrysanthemums flower out-of-doors till practically finished. Nasturtiums seed themselves, and you all know that they are one of our first flowers to be nipped by the frost.

Leaving San Francisco, we came north by boat to Seattle and one picture that delighted me specially was the one of the gulls which, he said, are quite tame. They follow the boats for miles. That picture showed them against a background of deep blue sky and bluer water. I love to watch gulls wheel and circle 'round, until deciding to come down, they drop their little red legs and feet in such a peculiar helpless sort of way. But they are by no means helpless or unaware of their surroundings. They can flash up again in an instant. It is always part of the fun to feed the gulls, but that run from San Francisco to Seattle and from Seattle to Victoria is more like a ferry ride—it only occupies a few hours between cities. It is on the Great Lakes where the gulls get fed and follow one ship a hundred miles or so, then pick up one going the opposite direction and transfer to it and go back to shore. They are beautiful birds.

In Victoria he showed us many familiar spots. Of course, the famous Butchart Gardens at Tod Inlet, and told how Mrs. Butchart had conceived the idea of beautifying an old unused quarry that was a scar on the landscape. But I've written about that wonderful place so many times that you all must know of its wonders by now. By the way, Mr. Norman Williams, formerly a great worker in our Horticultural Society and now on the coast, was over from there last fall and he brought me some packets of seeds from that famous garden. He said the Marigold was the closest (annual) to a "Golden Glow" he could find. I am looking for grand results, you may be sure.

If anyone knows Victoria, B.C., they know Beacon Hill Park, and if they have been there in May or June then they know what a blaze of glory it is with the Broom all out in flower. It is right beside the Pacific Ocean and one of the loveliest places. If you ever saw the Broom in flower you'd appreciate his picture of it. It is really a blaze of color, but a deep glowing orange and deep yellow.

But here I am keeping you at Victoria when there are such wonderful gardens at Vancouver. They are similar to those at Victoria. He showed us beautiful homes with magnificent gardens — stone fences around some of them, covered with wallflowers. We even went up to Prince Albert and saw a man planting his gladioli. His many pictures of the coast and the Rocky Mountains were magnificent. At Calgary he took us to George Island where they have re-constructed several pre-historic animals, and while they were not "beautiful" they were indeed very interesting. The dinosaur are tall enough to eat the tops of the trees.

There, dear me, how could I have left Vancouver without telling of the beautiful gardens in Stanley Park, but that is another place I have written about so often that you must all know it, if you have never seen it. There is a ten-mile hardshell road all around it, water all the way around and inside that ten-mile circumference — oh what wonders! Both natural and improvements on nature, if that possible.

I am making this much too long—and I'll skip along over to Harry Oak's Garden at Niagara Falls. I know plenty of us have seen it many times, and the Illumination at Niagara Falls. To sit in that wonderful place and watch the Falls at night when the flood-lights are on is something exquisite. Such colors! But I must ease up and end this rambling article. It's a subject I never know where and when to stop. I can shut my eyes, for instance, and see that lovely grove on the U.S.A. side just full of white lilies, our Trilliums, the Wake-Robin, as we call it, our national or rather provincial emblem.

Mr. Butt has invited us, each and every one, to take a car ride next August, and visit his gladioli garden. He says if he is too busy to take us around, we are welcome all the same to wonder around by ourselves and that there are many pleasant picnic places quite close. I hope we can accept that kind invitation If so, I'll write about this again.

Homemakers' Exchange

The steadily increasing food prices make the problem of providing nutritious meals for her family an even greater one for the homemaker. In a meat loaf we can use the cheaper cuts of meat. There is no waste and with the addition of bread crumbs or cereal flakes the meat is stretched that much farther. As well as being economical meat loaves are delicious.

BEEF LOAF

1½ Lbs. chopped beef
1 Egg
1½ Cups bread crumbs
2 Tbsp. chopped parsley
½ Tsp. pepper 2 Tsp. salt
2 Tbsp. chopped onions
2 Tbsp. chopped celery leaves
Dash savory

Mix meat thoroughly with remainder of ingredients. Place in bread pan. Bake in hot oven (400 degrees) 40 minutes, basting frequently with butter melted in hot water or stock. Serves six to eight.

HAM LOAF

1 Lb. ground smoked ham
½ Lb. ground pork
2 Cups soft bread crumbs or wheat flakes
1/8 Tsp. pepper
1 Well-beaten egg
3/4 Cup milk

Combine all ingredients. Mix thoroughly. Pack in ungreased 5" x 9" loaf pan. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) one hour. Drain off excess fat. Serves six to eight.

VEAL LOAF

2 Lbs. ground veal
1/4 Lb. ground pork
2½ Tsp. salt 1/4 tsp. pepper
1 Beaten egg 1 Cup milk
1 Cup cracker crumbs
2 Tbsp. chopped onion
2 Tbsp. lemon juice

Combine all ingredients and mix thoroughly. Pack in greased 5" x 9" loaf pan. Bake in slow oven (300 degrees) 1½ hours. serves six to eight.

Guest cook of the week is Mrs. G. W. Oliver who sends the following recipe:

BAKED MACARONI AND SAUSAGE

½ Lb. macaroni ½ Lb. sausage
½ Tsp. sugar
½ Cup grated cheese
2 Bay leaves
1 Small onion, chopped
1 Tin tomato paste
2 Tins water

Boil macaroni, rinse with cold water, drain. Pan broil sausage. Cook tomato sauce — to one tin paste, add two tins water, ½ tsp. sugar, chopped onion, 2 bay leaves, salt and pepper to taste. Cook ½ hour or until fairly thick.

Oil bake dish, put one layer macaroni, layer of cooked sausage — pour half of the tomato sauce over this, sprinkle on 1/4 cup grated cheese, use rest of the macaroni for the next layer, pour on last of sauce, sprinkle with 1/4 cup of cheese. Bake in 350 degrees oven for one-half hour. Makes four to six servings.

Mrs. Charles Johnston, Pefferlaw, is preparing to cook up a catch of perch which her husband has just brought in from the Black River. High water and the fact that there are plenty of minnows are considered by local fishermen to be assurance that there will be a bumper catch this year.

Perch Run Heavy On Black River

Perch fishing in the Black River around Pefferlaw way is good this spring and it is reaching its peak now. The perch run started ten days earlier this year and hundreds of anglers have been turning up at the Black river on Sundays. Above Reg Willis and Cecil Gibson, Newmarket, are hauling them in. Strung along the side of the boat is an hour's catch.

59 Seek Police Job In Whitchurch Twp.

Fifty-nine applied for the position of constable for the twp. of Whitchurch when applications were opened at Vandorf before the twp. council on Saturday afternoon. No decision was reached in the matter of making an appointment and more of the applicants will be interviewed personally. Two who did appear indicated that they would expect $1,200 a year and car allowance. Along with the duties of constable the officer will act as truant officer and sanitary inspector.

Applications were also opened for the position of assessor and the name of J. A. Clark was chosen from among ten applicants. Mr. Clark was not present but his qualifications were known to council. The salary is $1,000 and the duties include the work of building inspector. Mr. Clark is not entirely new to assessing since he acted in this capacity years ago and is probably as familiar with the twp. of Whitchurch as any living man. He has a good appreciation of farm values. His duties commence at once. Fred Cummings, who resigned from the position, did excellent work and the council was loathe to lose his services.

Eight applications were received for the position of assistant to clerk John Crawford who, it is acknowledged, is doing the work of two men in his office of clerk and treasurer. The appointment of an assistant will be made as soon as council can settle on who they think will be the best man for the job.

Auditor's Statement

Roy Andrews presented his auditor's statement for 1947. It is the most voluminous book an auditor ever laid before council in Whitchurch including a statement of 15 school sections which represented more than half the total report. The report was adopted by council and Mr. Andrews was ordered to be paid $600 for his services.

On motion of councillors L. J. Harper and Fred Timbers, the clerk was authorized to advertise for tenders for removal of garbage at Musselman's and Wilcox Lakes during the summer months.

The Beamish Construction Co. were the successful tenderers for two car loads of road oil or dust layer for the two lake areas. Mr. Beamish pointed out that this year the time was opportune for placing a tarvia top at Musselman's Lake road since it has the right consistency of oil for moulding into an inexpensive tarvia surface. He suggestid the road be oiled soon and in the early fall apply a binding oil and chips which would create a sound tarvia surface and eliminate the necessity of oil for several years.

The reeve and council were impressed and promised to give the matter serious consideration with possible action before the time arrives for the work to start.

Reeve Evans said the time had arrived when tarvia top roads would be a good investment. He pointed out that the twp. had gotten along for years without debenture issues, but the mounting cost of gravel roads that are only temporary at best, made it appear that if necessary tarvia roads would be cheaper in the long run even if debentures were resorted to. Councillors pointed out the sad condition on the 9th from the lake to Stouffville where fields were white with dust from the heavy traffic.

Bills from the Aurora fire department for $150 were received for fighting fires in recent weeks. They were mostly grass fires which had gotten out of control.

The council approved the Stouffville-Markham high school area which will come into existence next January. The twp. will bring in an assessment of $1,302,475, a population of 1,418 people and an acreage of 34,725. The motion to confirm the following sections of the twp. in the area was moved by Councillor Harper and Deputy-Reeve Logan as follows: con. 3, lots 1 to 5; con. 4, lots 1 to 10; cons. 5 and 6, lots 1 to 25; cons. 7 and 8, lots 1 to 35; con. 9 lots 2 to 35; con. 10, lots 1 to 12.

When the new board of education is set up in January, Whitchurch, Stouffville and Markham villages will each have one representative and Markham twp. two, by reason of its larger assessment, being nearly all the twp. except a portion in the Richmond Hill area bordering on Yonge St. and the first and second concessions.

Look what's new in the Goodwins' garden!

Mr. Goodwin's shiny new aluminum wheelbarrow is the envy of the neighbours. Junior is as proud as a peacock of his miniature version. Mrs. Goodwin dotes on her new, aluminum trowel . . . and her smart new garden chairs, sitting so invitingly in the shade.

Yes, aluminum is a natural in the garden—so light to handle, so perennially rustproof, so enduring. Little wonder it is finding a lot of interesting new uses—in rakes and brooms, lawnmowers and ladders . . . Little wonder the Goodwins' neighbours are determined that from now on their garden tools are going to be aluminum, too.

It all starts with ingots . . .

Ingots of pure aluminum from the world's largest aluminum smelter at Arvida, Canada, form the raw material for more than a thousand Canadian manufacturers. They turn this versatile metal into an almost endless variety of articles used by the transportation, electrical, construction, packaging and other industries . . . and by you in your own home.

FARM BULLETIN

GRASS and CLOVER SILAGE

Climatic conditions are sometimes unfavourable in the early part of a growing season. As a result there is danger of losing a large part of the hay crop. Proper ensilage will cut down loss.

Twenty years of experience at Experimental Farms indicates that ensilage of grass and clover can be done very successfully. The addition of 60 pounds of molasses per ton of crop ensiled assists in making a good quality of silage. However, addition of this preservative is not absolutely necessary if the crop is ensiled at the proper stage of maturity and with the right amount of moisture.

Experimental farms and agricultural colleges are very important aids to Canadian farmers. If you have a problem —soil, weeds, drainage, poultry, etc., ask your nearest experimental farm or agricultural college for advice. It will be worth having.

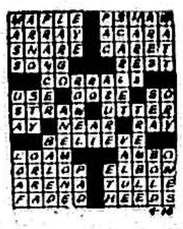

Another important service to Canadian farmers is offered by The Bank of Toronto—that of money. The Bank of Toronto managers are ready and willing to assist responsible farmers with loans.

Handling money
costs money

It costs you more to live these days.

And it costs your bank more to provide efficient banking service.

Bank staffs are more than half as large again as before the war; payrolls have nearly doubled. Taxes are up. So is the cost of everything banks buy.

Yet you pay no more for banking service than you did ten years ago. Today 7,000,000 Canadians are bank customers—striking evidence of the ever-widening usefulness of competitive banking in our national life.

Hi-Lights of N.H.S.

By ELAINE ROBINSON

Last Saturday, Uxbridge, Barrie and Newmarket high schools played a basketball tournament at Newmarket High. Barrie won the series but Newmarket and Uxbridge held their own and Barrie really had to work for the victory. The three teams had lunch at the school and continued their games until late Saturday afternoon. The girls enjoyed the day, and look forward to another one soon.

The Davis Senior Oratoricals were held at the school Monday afternoon. David Preston won first prize for the boys and the girls' first was won by Erla Toole. Jim Smart and Shirley Gartshore took the second prizes. There were seven contestants in this oratorical and they all spoke very well. The judges must have had a hard time deciding upon winners.

Last Friday evening was a big one at N.H.S. The "Drama and Music Night," was held in the auditorium. Two plays under the direction of the English teachers, Mr. James and Miss Roberts, were thoroughly enjoyed by all. The Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. Herman Fowler, Mus. Bac., sounded wonderful. We give our congratulations to all those responsible for providing such a splendid performance and also to those pupils in the plays and Glee Club who displayed some of the talent of N.H.S.

Tuesday afternoon was a day which some of us may always remember. We had the honor of listening to one of Canada's great poets, Mr. Wilson Macdonald. The many students who saw Mr. Macdonald were not at all disappointed with his wonderful poetry. In fact, we think we could have stayed another hour or two listening to it. He is truly wonderful.

Young Hopefuls

By DOROTHY MUIR BOWMAN

Audrey was an exasperating nine-year-old dawdler until her mother became clock-wise. For years it had been a struggle for mother to get Audrey to concentrate on the task at hand and finish it in anything even remotely ressembling a reasonable period of time. It always took her more than twice as long as seemed humanly possible to spend at doing the most trivial things.

Refusing to answer questions during intervals devoted to dressing, eating or putting toys away only helped the situation temporarily. Audrey began to dream silently after that. It was necessary to arouse Audrey an hour before breakfast time and then she wasn't always completely dressed before the meal was served. Previous to school years. Audrey had been known to dawdle over her breakfast till lunch time. Missing a morning's play or a special treat didn't discourage Audrey's dawdling.

A system of having Audrey bathed and dressed for bed before the evening meal did help get Audrey to bed earlier; but it seemed almost cruel to deprive the child of so much afternoon play time. It wasn't as if Audrey were the only young member of the family. There were two younger than she and they were following her example of dawdling.

Thanks To The Clock

The entire household is much happier since mother became clock-wise and turned some responsibility into the clock's hands. Audrey has a large home-manufactured clock with moveable hands and has a chart hanging beside it—showing clock faces for important events of the day, such as rising, meals, school, play, bed, etc. Audrey keeps her clock set ahead and not once has the kitchen clock reached the position on her clock before she was ready for the scheduled event.

Mother is only sorry she didn't use the clock system sooner. Audrey feels very important winning races with the clock and is having more time for fun. She even divides her play time by the clock—which may be just a passing fancy. However, meals and bed by the clock are established habits over a period of five months.

It's very easy to start clock talk to mere babies. Before these children can recognize positions of the clock hands, they rely on what the clock says and that even makes time for bed acceptable to them.

She was active in church life until her health failed.

Surviving are her husband, four daughters, Velma (Mrs. Penrose), Flossie (Mrs. Lyon), Frances (Mrs. Lyall), Etta (Mrs. Wight) and one son, Charles, at home. Besides one brother, Charles Willoughby, Eastbourne, are 14 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

ANSWER SEVEN CALLS

Aurora—The Fire Brigade had a busy time over the weekend answering seven calls. Six were in King Township and were grass fires. The other was a false alarm rung in locally by a juvenile. Loss was negligible in all cases.

THERE'S A REASON

- The reason is that Canada must have the U.S. dollars spent here by tourists, in order to make them available for the payment of imported goods and services needed to keep production and employment at a high level.

SO NEAR AND YET SO FAR

Markham Millionaires failed in their third trip to the finals to gain an intermediate title, losing out to Georgetown Red Raiders who, aided by artificial ice at home, had that added zip that meant victory. It was a heartbreaker for the Markies. For close to 12 years both Ernie Lawrie and Harry Milroy have been trying to annex an intermediate championship. Milroy toiled with Sutton Greenshirts unsuccessfully and left the club for the army just before they won out in 1941. Since 1937 Austy Baker, Bob Bangay and Bob Lawrie have played for Markham. They were members of the junior club which went to the finals in 1940 and in 1941, in company with present teammates, Jack Harper and Jack Watson, they were on the junior C champs. Next season they played intermediate, losing out to Owen Sound. George and Fred Scott of the present club joined Markham that year. The war ended the club's activities until last winter when the boys reunited again, added Milroy and Chuck Nesbitt, who played with the Bangay brothers in the army and lost out to Grimsby in the finals.

This year with only one lost from the team in the person of Nick Bangay, they added George Stark and Dick Perry, last year with Newmarket Vets, Jack Rumney and Lloyd Pascoe, Victoria Square, and Bert Baker, Todmorden Legion. The O.H.A. elevated them to the A series but they again reached the finals only to falter. Whether or not the club will stay together for another season is doubtful as some of the lads are about ready for retirement and as has been said before, Bob Bangay may turn pro. The fans all over the country would have been pleased to see the Millionaires strike gold in their third try. Perhaps we should have used a term other than "strike gold" for the club has had a great year financially and there is a healthy melon to be sliced. Curiously enough, Georgetown, which is managed by Don Barrager, brother of the photographer, Bud Barrager, Aurora, was once eliminated this year but successfully regained the right to proceed on when they won a protest over Milton and took a sudden-death play-off. Del Beaumon and Ken Nash, Georgetown, both played junior hockey for Aurora against most of the Markham team. Gibson was a member of the Bolton junior club ousted in the finals by Markham in 1941, and Patterson of the Red Raiders played for Markham in 1941.

Only Hamilton Tigers repeated their performance of 1947 in winning an O.H.A. championship. There was no senior B series last year, won by Sarnia this year. Brantford, who defeated Georgetown in the A series last year, moved to senior B as did Grimsby who defeated Markham last year. Sundridge headed by ex-pro Bucko McDonald, a room mate at Capital Hill of North York's Jack Smith, have brought the north their first intermediate championship. Barrie Flyers relaced St. Mike's in junior A. De La Salle Oaklands fell by the wayside in the B series and Goderich Flyers were ousted from the C series by Thorold Legion who took Gananoque, conquerors of Aurora Flyers, in three games. The Thorold club is practically the same as that which lost to Aurora in the O.M.H.A. midget finals of 1946. Roach, Tatarnic, Duckett, Longo, Gabriel, Remegio, etc., who were outplayed by Aurora two years ago, came into their own this winter. Thompson and Milne, the two defencemen used against Aurora who looked mighty good, both failed to make the club this winter. It was the first O.H.A. championship ever held in Thorold. In fact, except for Hamilton in the senior, and the junior B winners, all the honors will go to first time winners this year, which is perhaps as it should be. With the Stanley Cup decided and the senior and junior series down to east vs. west, only the T.H.L. is still in action. Hurry up, fellows, you've just time to sign for he King Clancy series and if you're lucky you can call it a season by May 24.

BOY SCOUT NEWS

The regular meeting of the Newmarket Boy Scouts will be held tonight. Full uniform is requested. The Scoutmaster has asked for a full turn-out because of important announcements to be made. The Scouts will be collecting salvage on the west side of town Saturday.

GIRL GUIDE NEWS

On Saturday, April 10, the first Newmarket company held its first court of honor. The business on hand was discussed and Janet Foxcroft was elected secretary of the court.

On Wednesday, April 14, there was an enrollment. It was the company' first enrollment. Sixteen girls were enrolled. Miss Mary Annan, captain of the Aurora company, officiated. The parents of the girls taking part in the ceremony were present.

There are 50 members of the Girl Guide company now, with a long waiting list. This is encouraging and we hope that the enthusiasm will keep up.—K.E.

LEADING SCORER

Ronnie Simmons, smart young centre player of Aurora Flyers, will hold the W. R. McQuade Tip Top trophy for another year as a result of leading Aurora junior scorers over the season.

BOWLING FINALS

The bowling finals for District "E" Canadian Legion in doubles, singles, and team will be held in Barrie on Saturday, April 17, at 3 p.m. Newmarket, Aurora and Woodbridge are entered from Zone E-2.

VOTED OUTSTANDING

Eric Smith, talented young net minder of Aurora Flyers, has been chosen by his teammates as the outstanding player on the team. Eric will thus be placed on the 1948 O.H.A. honor roll and will receive a gold pin from the association. It is Smith's final year in junior hockey and the award is a most popular one with the fans.

Ladies' Softball

Here's the news all the lady softball players, fans and supporters alike have been waiting for. President Orval Hisey and manager Frank Courtney of last year's Ontario finalists give out with the information that the organization meeting of the club for 1948 will be held tonight, Thursday, April 15. The place is the council chambers, time 8 p.m. The club will be looking forward to a large turn-out.

Tennis

Charles Lee, president of the 1947 Newmarket Tennis Club, announces plans for 1948 will be drawn up and put in working order with a meeting next Tuesday, April 20. The election of officers and other matters will be discussed. The time of the meeting is 8 p.m. and the place, the council chambers atop the fire hall. President Lee is anxious for all persons interested in the court game to be on hand and all newcomers will be welcome.

Lacrosse

Lacrosse plans are making rapid strides. Harold Gwyn, leader of the movement to bring Canada's national game back to the canal town, has an executive lined up. Bernard McHale will hold down the president's office with Harold Gwyn acting as secretary-treasurer. The club has the promise of two old time lacrosse players, Harry Doonan to act as manager, and Charlie "Kid" Harman to give out with the coaching information. No fault to be found with these selections. First practice was scheduled for last Sunday afternoon, but the rainmakers turned on the heavy dew forcing cancellation. Next Saturday and Sunday will likely see action on this front.

You may ask, when was lacrosse, box variety, last played here? Rounding up the information from several old time lacrosse players, we find it was played locally, in the arena, back in 1932. Bill Hancock, coach of the Newmarket "Redmen," dominion junior champions, put the lacrosse team through their paces in that year. Carl "Shorty" Turan, Frank Doran and "Sparky" Vail, to name a few, as well as several other junior puck stars performed with the team. Newmarket was grouped with Aurora, Richmond Hill and Bradford, the latter club taking the group honors. A four-team town league also was in operation back in those days but faded out the following year. As a matter of record, lacrosse was played in the local arena during the war years, when the military camp staged a couple of tilts with teams from Camp Borden.

Pickering College

On the subject of lacrosse, Dick Mather, former recreation director for Newmarket, passes along the information that Pickering College will have a number of field lacrosse teams this spring. A 12-team inter-mural league is being formed at the school on the hill with teams in junior, intermediate and senior ratings.

Other sports planned at the college or now being played included a five-team softball league with teams in senior and junior series. The Pickering track team is working out in preparation for the annual track and field meet scheduled for May 29 this year, and for the Big Four track meet booked for Upper Canada this spring. Considerable interest is being shown in archery and tennis.

Canadian Hoffman

Spring is here! General Manager Dewey Kuhns and Plant Superintendent Doug Campbell of the Canadian Hoffman Company have plans prepared for a softball diamond to be laid out to the north and west of the Hoffman plant. Work on the project will start towards the end of the month. Horse shoe pitching pits will also be set out. This will provide the Hoffman employees with a place for hours of sport and recreation.

Sangamo Company

Henry Moore and Fred Gardiner of the Sangamo Company report they have a ladies' softball team at the local plant and are anxious to line up some local opposition. Who will take up the challenge? Mr. Gardiner, who attended the Recreation Council conclave Tuesday, also said the Sangamo Company would seriously consider entering the Newmarket Men's Industrial Softball League. There's your fourth club, men of the Industrial League. Take it from there.
